DECIDE ON REDISCOUNT Reserve Bank Rate Maximum 6, Minimum 5 Per Cent.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The Federal Reserve Board to-night decided that the rates to be charged by the twelve Federal Reserve banks for the rediscounting of commercial paper should be not greater than 6 and not less than 5 per cent. These rates will obtain when the banks open for business next Monday. They can be changed by the board later if they prove unsatisfactory.

HUNTERS' FIRES RAVAGE JERSEY

Flames Sweep Across the Meadows, Causing
$150,000 Damage.

New Jersey fires, ignited by hunters or sparks from locomotives, yesterday burned buildings in Trenton and Newark to the value of $150,000. Meanwhile, the forest fires that have been raging for days in various parts of the state continued unchecked. In most sections the fire fighters are struggling against the handicaps of high winds and lack of water.

Embargo on Listed Industrial and Railroad Issues
Will Shortly Be Raised.

That Stock Exchange governors and bankers have in mind a definite plan for reopening the exchange was disclosed yesterday in a ruling of the committee of five that unrestricted trading in municipal and state bonds may be resumed for domestic account. The precaution taken against renewal of the foreign selling that caused havoc in the financial centers of this country as a result of the declarations of war by the belligerent European powers was that all transactions for delayed delivery, or "seller contracts," should continue to be under the supervision of the sub-committee on bonds at the Stock Exchange Clearing House.

SWORD AND GRIM FACE ON HINDENBURG MEDAL

London, Nov. 13.—German newspapers continue to announce victories not only for German arms in east and west but also for Turkey. On the medallion that has been struck in honor of General von Hindenburg the general is described as "the conqueror of the Russians" and "the liberator of East Prussia."
